

Baptist History: Hidden Treasure Project

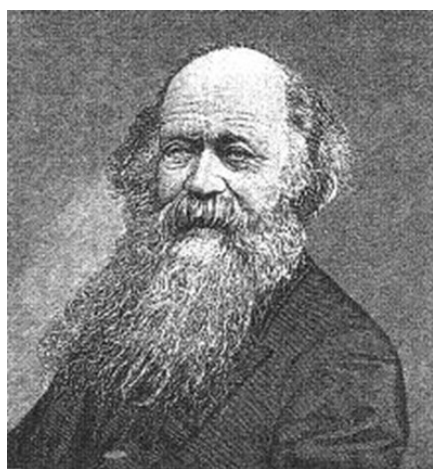

Regent's
Park College
OXFORD

The first three months are now over!

What have we been doing down in The Angus all this time? Read on to find out!

Enjoy! And our thanks to you all for your continued support - The Project Team

Rev Dr Joseph Angus

Edition Number: 1
June 2013

The Project Team:

Revd. Emma Walsh

College Librarian

Anja Clark

Project Administrator

Katie Pearce

Learning & Participation Officer

Ways to get involved:

Join us as a volunteer! See below for details

Enrol on one of our Archiving for the Future and Writing your Church History Courses! Flyers available on our Blog

If you would like to be kept informed of all our developments, please email us or visit our social networking sites

- ◆ What happened over the last three months? Update on the latest events
- ◆ View from the Ground: Anja Clark, Project Administrator
- ◆ Coming up in the next month and beyond: What's going to happen in Summer 2013?
- ◆ Your Library needs You! Our volunteer opportunities

A beautiful selection of bookmarks and postcards can be found in The Angus.

Please come and help yourself!

Volunteer Opportunities

We have a number of people who already volunteer in The Angus, helping in a variety of ways such as working in the archive and library and with outreach activities.

Please contact us to see how your skills, gifts and abilities can be used to help us continue with our exciting project.

angus.library@regents.ox.ac.uk

Blog

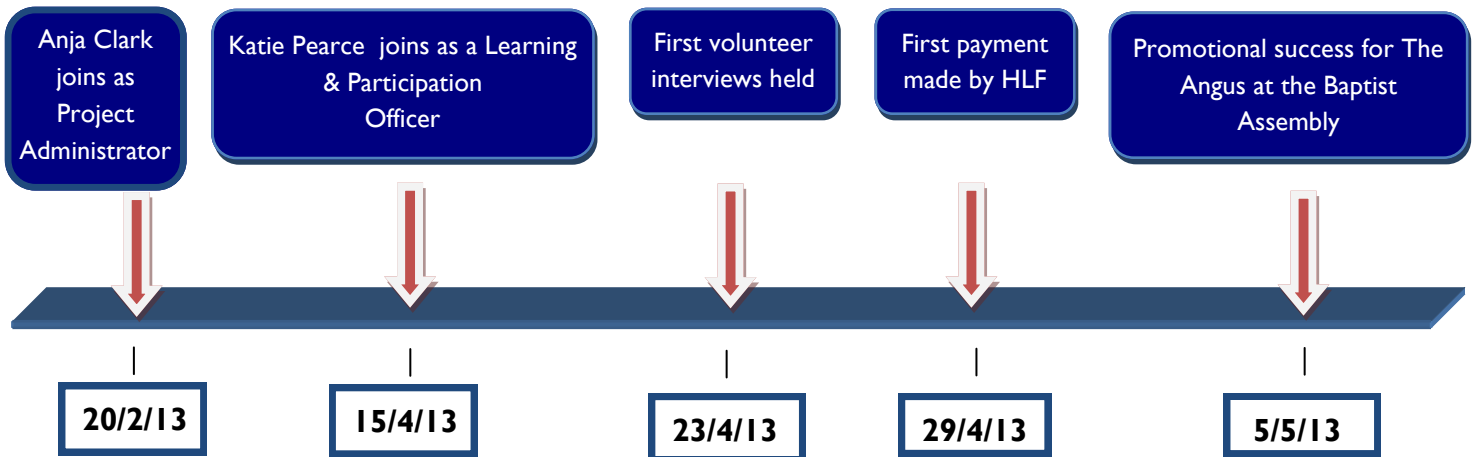

Facebook

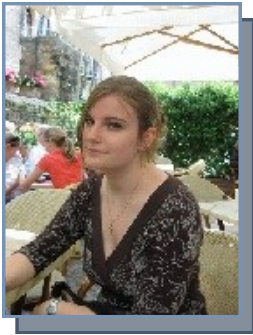

Twitter

What happened over the last three months?

A View From the Ground

Q: What is the most exciting aspect of the project for you?

I can't wait for the cataloguing to properly get underway. Who knows what gems we may have in our stacks!

Profile: Anja Clark was the first HLF staff member to be recruited. She works full-time in The Angus as the Project and Library Administrator. She is responsible for keeping track of the timeline and budget (and making this newsletter!) She is 25 years old and studied German & Italian at Bristol University.

Coming up over the next few months

