NOTICE: Non-members of the University may not attend university lectures (unless they are announced as open to the general public) without payment of a fee, otherwise than by personal invitation of the lecturer concerned. Persons who are neither reading for a qualification of this University nor otherwise exempt, and who wish to attend lectures in any term, should apply to the Fees Clerk, University Offices, Wellington Square, Oxford OX1 2JD, for details of fees. Senior visiting scholars from other universities who wish to attend lectures, seminars, or classes should normally apply to the lecturer concerned directly, and not to the Fees Clerk.

Lectures begin on the first possible day after the beginning of Full Term (23 Apr) unless otherwise stated.

Lectures will begin five minutes after the hour and finish at five minutes before the next hour.

- 1 There will be animated debate amongst the medieval French tutors and we very much encourage you to bring your unresolved questions, digested thoughts, and fresh ideas to contribute to the discussion; the aim of the session is always for it to be fuelled by issues from the floor. Feel free to Tweet a question in advance to @MedFrenchOx if there's something in particular that you know you'd like us to cover. We'll also direct you where to find information on WebLearn about medieval French FHS papers as you consider your options for next year and beyond.
- 2 First-year Grammar: Attendance at these classes is restricted to those who have been recommended to attend by their college tutor.
