NOTICE: Non-members of the University may not attend university lectures (unless they are announced as open to the general public) without payment of a fee, otherwise than by personal invitation of the lecturer concerned. Persons who are neither reading for a qualification of this University nor otherwise exempt, and who wish to attend lectures in any term, should apply to the Fees Clerk, University Offices, Wellington Square, Oxford OX1 2JD, for details of fees. Senior visiting scholars from other universities who wish to attend lectures, seminars, or classes should normally apply to the lecturer concerned directly, and not to the Fees Clerk.

Lectures begin on the first possible day after the beginning of Full Term (22 Apr) unless otherwise stated.

Lectures will begin five minutes after the hour and finish at five minutes before the next hour.

2	Tea served from 4.45pm. All DPhil students are welcome to attend, at any stage of the year, whatever year they are in, and whether or not they attended in previous terms or years. We discuss a wide range of problems, techniques, and methods that tend to arise in the researching and the writing of the kinds of doctorates done within the Faculty (though the workshop is less well geared to linguistics). Apart from perhaps giving a very brief presentation during the year, students do no preparation: they just turn up.
