NOTICE: Non-members of the University may not attend university lectures (unless they are announced as open to the general public) without payment of a fee, otherwise than by personal invitation of the lecturer concerned. Persons who are neither reading for a qualification of this University nor otherwise exempt, and who wish to attend lectures in any term, should apply to the Fees Clerk, University Offices, Wellington Square, Oxford OX1 2JD, for details of fees. Senior visiting scholars from other universities who wish to attend lectures, seminars, or classes should normally apply to the lecturer concerned directly, and not to the Fees Clerk.

Lectures begin on the first possible day after the beginning of Full Term (8 Oct) unless otherwise stated.

Lectures will begin five minutes after the hour and finish at five minutes before the next hour.

9	The purpose of these meetings is to help graduate students (all levels) to improve their skills in reading early French through practical, 'hands-on' translation sessions involving a range of materials (requests for specific texts may be accommodated, subject to negotiation). Prior experience of early French is not a prerequisite, but those attending are expected to engage in prescribed preparatory work, including translation of source texts and consultation of grammar guides and dictionaries. Interested parties are asked to apprise Dr Burrows (daron.burrows@spc.ox.ac.uk) of their intention to attend before term begins, in order to facilitate practical arrangements.
