

THE GOETHE-INSTITUT
AWARD FOR NEW
TRANSLATION 2016

A biennial award (€1,000) for the best translation of an excerpt from Momente der Klarheit by Jackie Thomae into English.

The winner will also attend the Leipzig Book Fair (17th - 20th March) and the International Translators' meeting on the 13th March.

ENTRY DEADLINE: 28 FEBRUARY 2016

The Goethe-Institut Award for New Translation was first awarded in 2010 with the support of the German Embassy in London. The award is open to emerging British translators of literature who translate from German into the English language.

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The decision of the assessors will be final and they reserve the right not to make a Goethe-Institut Award for New Translation if, in their opinion, no works entered reach a sufficiently high standard. The Society of Authors will not share the personal information you provide without permission.

HOW TO ENTER

- A letter of intention regarding your aims and translation interests
- A curriculum vitae listing your previous publications
- If you would like your entry acknowledged, please send an SAE marked 'ACK Goethe-Institut Award'.
- Please complete and return the form below with five copies (non-returnable) of your translation, which should be double spaced, and with your name on each page to:

Paula Johnson, Awards Secretary, The Goethe-Institut Award for New Translation
