Funding & Prizes

3.1 Oxford Seed Funding Application Open

The Oxford Seed Fund is a student-led venture capital fund that helps brilliant Oxonians make the Oxford difference through their ventures. We invest up to £50,000 in the top Oxford-affiliated startups and provide them with the network and support they need to scale.

We would appreciate your help in spreading awareness about our first round of funding this year. Applications are open until February 2019, and we want to make sure as many startups as possible are aware of this opportunity for funding.

Would you be willing to send an email with information about the Seed Fund and the upcoming funding deadline to your members? We have attached a copy of our flyer with this information for your convenience. Here is a little blurb for the application and the application link:

Do you have the next great idea?

Excited to be part of the Oxford Seed Fund and to announce that our application for funding is now open! We invest up to £50,000 annually in startups (typically split between two ventures) founded by current or former Oxford students. You can apply at the following link: oxfordseedfund.com.

If you have any comments or questions, please email Alexandra.MacBain.MBA18@said.oxford.edu

3.5 Call for Student Peer Reviewers: Common Ground Journal

Common Ground journal is seeking to recruit a team of student peer reviewers for our first issue of 2019. Both graduate and undergraduate students are welcome to apply. Common Ground Journal publishes innovative research and non-fiction pieces that work to expose the legacy of empire in universities, decolonise curricula & contribute to anti-racist scholarship in the humanities and beyond. Founded in Trinity Term 2018, the journal is now in its third issue.

Deadline: 4th January 2019. Short interviews will be held in Week 1 of Hilary Term. Please note no experience is necessary.

Please contact rebecca.desouza@hertford.ox.ac.uk for more information.

3.6 Graduate opportunities - Ark Teacher Training

From Francesca Waters, Ark teacher Training Recruitment Adviser: I am part of the education charity Ark, which exists to give all of our pupils access to a great education and the opportunity to go onto a career or university of their choice. We have our own outstanding teacher training programme, which trains graduates to become fantastic teachers in a fully immersive and supportive environment of one of our schools - we have 38 across London, Birmingham, Portsmouth and Hastings.

On our programme, our trainees are able to have an impact on pupils' progress straight away, potentially even inspiring them onto studying at Oxford University! We are looking to reach out to those with the subject knowledge in French or Spanish and who are considering a career in teaching; we think final year students in your faculty could very much fit that profile.

For more information please contact Francesca Waters Francesca.Waters@arkonline.org

3.7 WANTED!

Native or fluent speakers of any language other than English to participate in a 'Library Late' event at the Weston Library on Friday 8th March (7-9.30pm). Volunteers will be prepared to speak to members of the public, 1-to-1 or in small groups, in and about the language in which they are fluent. We aim to have at least 8 tables available, and can rotate volunteers so that the language stations change during the course of the evening – that way, no one has to be on duty for the full 2.5 hours. The individual sessions will be given a time limit (probably 10 mins per slot) so that there is a good flow of people – a bit like speed dating for languages! You can offer to teach some simple phrases in your language, or give some facts about the language and culture, or interesting sayings etc. You may even have native speakers who just want a chat in their own language.

If you're interested in taking part in this activity, please get in touch with:

Joanne Ferrari joanne.ferrari@bodleian.ox.ac.uk

Responses appreciated by Wednesday 16th January!

4 Year Abroad

4.1 Job Opportunities

Nannynou

Nannynou has been operating in Paris now for more than 7 years and we pride ourselves on our excellent employee and client relations. We provide our nannies with a safety net & support network during their time with us and help them get their lives set-up in Paris.

We offer a flexible range of schedules ranging from 8 to 45 hours per week. Some of our positions come with optional, furnished accommodation in central Paris, independent from the family they work with. As well as the usual nannying duties, our employees help the children to discover English through everyday use and play, contributing to their development and helping them to get the best start early in life.

If you would like a little bit more information, you can check out our website: www.nannynou.co.uk, our Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/nanny.nou/> or follow us on Instagram: nannynou75. I'm also available to talk over the phone or via Skype, if you wish. Or you can email me any questions you or the students may have.
