St Cross College

Membership of Common Room

MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS

All former students of St Cross have the right to become a Member of Common Room at the end of their studies, as do Former Fellows.

MCR status enables members to:

• Play an active role in College life by attending Feasts, Special Dinners, Lectures and any other events on the termly calendar, just as they did as a student or Fellow

• Enjoy lunch in College twice a week

• Receive College bulletins to keep up-to-date with what’s on via our dedicated MCR mailing list.

• Keep a fob to access College facilities whenever they like

• Keep a St Cross membership card

• Hire College facilities for private functions or parties

• Book College rooms for meetings

• Maintain a battels account, payable termly, with which to pay for dinners and events

• Retain a College website account so they can use the bookings calendar to book onto Dinners and Feasts.

• Attend special events such as the Encaenia garden party

MEMBERSHIP FEES

A deposit of £25.00 for your fob and membership card and a termly subscription fee of £38.90 apply, as at 1 August 2018. These fees are subject to a small increase each August.

Your deposit will be returned to you when you cease your membership.

If you are based in Oxford, the termly subscription fee is £31.12.

The MCR rate for lunches is £11.30 for 2018/19. Your membership entitles you to lunch in College twice a week.

If you are still a member of the University, either as a student or member of staff, your University card (Bod card) can be used as your lunch card and topped up at the Lodge or Accounts Office. If this applies to you, please tell us your University Card number on the application form.

If you are no longer a University member, you will be issued with a St Cross Membership card with which to pay for lunch.

There is no cost up front; your fob deposit and termly fee will be charged to your Battels account which is payable at the end of each term.

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Please hand in your completed form to the Alumni Office, St Cross College, 61 St Giles, Oxford OX1 3LZ, or email a scanned copy to alumni@stx.ox.ac.uk. Please contact us if you have any queries about becoming a Member of Common Room.

How will your data be used and stored?

Information collected will be held securely in the University’s Shared Development and Alumni Relations System (DARS). Information may be used to improve our communications with you, to invite you to relevant events, share news of particular fundraising appeals and to contact you about relevant volunteer opportunities. The data may be used by colleges, faculties, departments, administrative units, international offices, recognised alumni societies, sports and other University entities, and agents contracted by the University in that capacity. Full details on how your data is held and used are set out in our data protection statement at www.alumniweb.ox.ac.uk/stx/privacy-notice or you can request a hard copy from the address below. If at any time you have queries about the use of your personal data in DARS, or wish to change the fact of, or extent of, use of your personal data, please contact St Cross quoting your alumni number if you have one: St Cross College, 61 St Giles, Oxford OX1 3LZ or alumni@stx.ox.ac.uk.

The College will also hold your data on its own database (CHIPS) for administrative purposes (soon to be the ‘College Records’ system). The College’s Data Protection contact is the Bursar, John Tranter, who should be contacted at the above address should you have any queries about this.
